Great games, upsets mark first month of play for 2012-13 season

Collegiate Basketball News welcomes you to this first edition of The RPI Report for this exciting 2012-13 season. CBN is pleased to have you as a subscriber no matter if this is your first season with us or your 22nd. If you are simply checking the Report out to consider subscribing we welcome your interest. If you are not familiar with either the Report or our sister publication, The Women's RPI Report, we would like to take this opportunity to provide you with some details of our publications.

Jim Sukup started Collegiate Basketball News in 1991, and the first issue of The RPI Report was published in early January of 1992. The first issue of The Women's RPI Report was published in late January of 1997, making this its 17th season of publication. Sukup has been a basketball enthusiast for decades and currently writes a monthly column for Basketball Times that you may be familiar with. The RPI Report and The Women's RPI Report were the first, and are the most respected, publications dealing with the RPI in all of college basketball.

We say the same thing every year, and this year is no different: Do not take the RPI rankings very seriously at this time of year. While everyone is curious about the RPI in late November and early- to mid-December, 70% of the season is yet to come. Conference play in January will expose those teams that have fattened up on cupcakes during the non-conference season. The beauty of conference games is that the teams all play an equal number of teams at home and on the road. There have been some great games and some major surprises so far this year, but there are still a lot of basketball games to be played. The RPI rankings will become increasingly better as more games are played, and we will get a decent hint of which teams will be vying for post-season play around the first of January.

There is no need to go into the long list of schools that have changed conferences for this season. However, there are three schools new to the RPI this year. New Orleans is back in the RPI this season as an independent after deciding they will stay in Division I, ending a one-year RPI hiatus. They will play in the Southland Conference next season. Nebraska-Omaha counts in the RPI this season and is a member of the Summit League, and Northern Kentucky will also count in the RPI as they make their debut in the Atlantic Sun Conference.

Looking at schools that will be new to the RPI next season, Abilene Christian, Incarnate Word, and Grand Canyon are taking the necessary steps to move from Division II to Division I. The first two have accepted membership invitations from the Southland Conference, and Grand Canyon from the WAC, and they should all begin conference play in 2013-14. North Alabama does not yet have an invitation from a conference, a requirement that must be met before moving to Division I, which will not come before the 2014-15 season.

While there were plenty of schools that changed conferences heading into this season, it was nothing compared to the 30 schools (and counting) that will have new conference affiliations in 2013-14, not including Abilene Christian and Incarnate Word. I have a few other schools on my "conference change watch" list, and there is a good chance one or more of them will have a new conference home next season. While the quest for a better conference home never ends, here is one vote that schools take a year off from the seemingly endless merry-go-round after next season.

If you have not already done so, be sure to take a few minutes to look at our updated men's home court records list at rpiratings.com/homecourtrec.php. This list contains a wealth of information and can be a help in setting up future non-conference opponents. We are always on the lookout for updated home court information and welcome any additions or corrections.

Don't forget to order the CBN Men's Post-Season Wrap-up Package for the 2011-12 season (only a few copies remain), and for the current 2012-13 season as well. An order form can be found on our web site at www.rpiratings.com (click on the Subscriber Services link). Our bound volumes contain a complete set of The RPI Report for the season, complete team-by-team game results for the season, analysis of non-conference road games, standings, and much more! Be sure to get your order in for the 2012-13 season now because we print only a limited number of copies. It will be mailed in late April. Call us at (317) 255-0749 if you would like additional information.

Keep our CBN On-Site Service presentation in mind for your school or conference to benefit from detailed knowledge of the RPI and non-conference scheduling. Although it focuses on basketball, the principles of the RPI and non-conference scheduling are generally the same from sport to sport, allowing all of your programs in which the RPI is used to benefit. Also, CBN routinely conducts special projects each year for schools and conferences, including data-intensive calculations on tasks such as non-conference scheduling analysis and other related topics. If you would like additional information, please call us at (317) 255-0749.

KEY TO CHANCES OF BEING AN AT-LARGE NCAA TOURNAMENT SELECTION IN VARIOUS NON-RPI CATEGORIES

This list appears in the Report around the first of February. "OK" denotes the team has, in general, met the standard for the given column, based on past at-large tournament selections. For NDI games, a "69.8% had 0" means that 69.8% of at-large teams played no non-Division I games; "OK means they played no such games. For D-I wins, "69.4% had more wins" means that 69.4% of at-large teams had more wins than the team in question, and so on. The RPI Ranking Bracket column gives the percentage of at-large teams within the ranking bracket that were selected for the tournament.

The Rating Percentage Index has been used since 1981 to help select at-large teams and seed all teams for the men's NCAA basketball tournament. Data herein duplicates the RPI without input from the NCAA. The three RPI components are: Factor I (25 % of the RPI) is the team's weighted Division I (D-I) winning percentage, excluding non-Division I opponents. Factor II (50 %) is the team's opponents' D-I winning percentage (schedule strength) excluding games played against the team in question. Factor III (25 %) is the team's opponents' opponents' D-I winning percentage (the teams' opponents' schedule strength). The weighted RPI formula is based upon the home, neutral, or road location of the game.
